

School Readiness Parent Guide

Welcome

Kids In Motion proudly participates in Florida's School Readiness Program.

The School Readiness Program assists eligible families with childcare costs while helping children prepare for future educational success.

Parent Responsibilities

Parents are responsible for:

- ✓ Maintaining eligibility
- ✓ Completing redetermination requirements
- ✓ Reporting changes to the Early Learning Coalition
- ✓ Meeting attendance requirements
- ✓ Paying required copayments

Attendance Expectations

Regular attendance is required.

Excessive absences may affect School Readiness eligibility and funding.

Parents should notify the center when a child will be absent.

Copayments

Parents are responsible for any assigned School Readiness copayment and any fees not covered by School Readiness funding.

Important Reminders

- Keep contact information current.
- Complete all required paperwork on time.
- Review notices from the Early Learning Coalition promptly.
- Maintain regular attendance.
